8. SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

FORM ONE 2023 SUBJECT SELECTION

This activity took place on the 22nd of September, 2023. It was held in the school hall from 10.30a.m. to 12.30p.m. All form one students were in attendance together with their class teachers.

The event was organized and hosted by the Career Unit. Heads of Departments were able to address students on the importance of picking the right selection of eight subjects to be studied all the way to form four. A cluster of subjects chosen has a direct bearing to the type of career a student would be able to pursue at the university and college level; this was made very clear to the students. After the session, students were given time to consult on any issues they had.

The students have been issued with subject selection forms to be submitted by the first week of school opening in January. In the event a student loses a form, they can download another copy from the school portal, fill and submit with the rest.

Thank you.

9. TRANSPORT

School buses will pickup/drop off day students from specific points. See the schedule of our transport on Appendix C.

10. PLACEMENT OF STUDENTS TO UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES 2024

Following recent developments which include a new funding model for tertiary education, applicants are required to make choices based on cost per programme as published in the KUCCPS online application systems.

The application for placement to universities and colleges will commence after release of KCSE results and declaration of programmes, capacities and program costs in various institutions.

Applications will henceforth be done by parents or guardians and applicants. Centre/School application will NOT be available. However, guidance will be provided through the careers department.

TIPS FOR PARENTS

Identity formation is a key process for adolescents' growth. Identity is reflected in how a person behaves/ acts in different situations and contexts. It involves integrations of one's self understanding, goals, values and behavior in influencing choices a young person makes in life.

A positively developed youth measures highly in five constructs. These include confidence, competence, character, connection and caring of self and others.

A young person needs to identify "who am I" ? What are my expectations? Values? Beliefs? Goals? Parameters ?

Adolescents who have not started identity formation have low commitment and have not explored possibilities. The danger in these youth is the they are easily swayed to following other people's beliefs, values and goals.

Young people who blindly follow others are mostly distracted from their own development and may embrace undesirable habits.

It is necessary for parents to work with teachers closely to provide opportunities that will enhance growth and monitoring of young adults who will be psychologically healthier and hence more focused in their journey in adulthood.

Yours sincerely,

KHAMIS MOHAMED KHAMIS
